

LEADERS

Hey, everybody, stop panicking. You are feeding on pessimism.

Give the executives who are really trying a chance. Things don't turn around like magic!

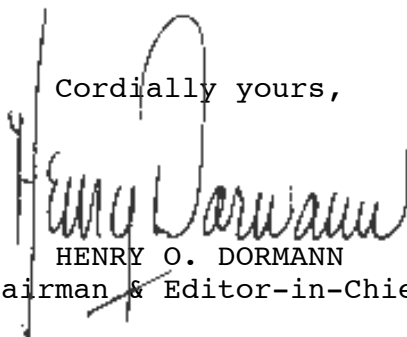

The basic world economy is sound, but emotion and fear are driving the stock markets.

Where is that leader - that distinguished leader - who is regarded with respect and who will say publicly, worldwide, that there is success ahead? Is everybody afraid to speak out?

Now is the time for a hero.

Where are you?

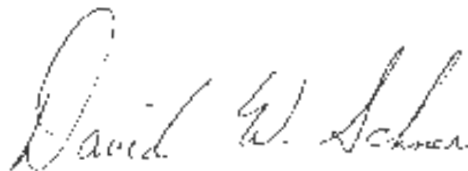

Cordially yours,
