LETTERS FROM LEADERS

The road to success: What inspiration would you offer to young people aspiring to become our future leaders? The following words are some of those we have collected for publication in a book to be distributed at schools throughout the world. The proceeds will be donated to charity to fund scholarships for tomorrow's leaders in need of financial support as they prepare to begin their career journey.

We believe you will enjoy the following thoughts and look forward to hearing yours.

*A*lways look for opportunities that will give you a chance to learn.

Don't be the last person to sign up.

Always look for something that really turns your crank; look for work that you like and work that you want to do.

Don't think of your career as a weigh station.

Always over-deliver. Never do just what the boss asks – always do more.

Have a positive attitude. Don't walk around with a sour face. No one wants that. Have a positive, "can-do" attitude.

And have plenty of ambition, but don't wear it on your forehead when you're with your peers, subordinates, or superiors.
