

The London NYC

SITUATED JUST STEPS FROM FIFTH AVENUE shopping, Broadway theaters, Carnegie Hall, Central Park, and all midtown businesses, The London NYC (www.thelondonnyc.com) offers some of the most spacious accommodations in Manhattan, from stylish London Suites that offer a minimum of 500 square feet to the extravagant London Penthouse. The property boasts sophisticated but livable interiors by well-known designer David Collins.

Guests seeking the ultimate urban retreat can request the 2,500-square-foot London Penthouse on the 53rd and 54th floors of the property. The stunning and lavish space offers floor-to-ceiling windows providing exceptional views of Central Park, the Hudson River, and the Manhattan skyline. In addition, guests can choose from additional luxury suites within three other room types: the London Apartments, the London Atrium, and the London Sky Suites, which offer unique and one-of-a-kind layouts, outstanding views, and elegant furnishings. Every suite provides a complete bath environment featuring details by Waterworks that include dual showerheads and hand-cut mosaic tiles with made-to-order fixtures, bath linens, and apothecary products.

Guests eager to stay in shape during their stay have complimentary access to The London NYC Club, which offers Kinesis Walls by Technogym and state of the art Lifefitness equipment. Those looking for private meeting and event space also have access to intimate venue options coupled with first-rate technology and exceptional dining options, as well as an original and customized design.

The London NYC also offers guests an exceptional dining experience from Michelin-starred chef Gordon Ramsay. Based upon his flagship restaurant in London, Gordon Ramsay at The London offers guests an indulgent, fine-dining experience. MAZE by Gordon Ramsay offers a sophisticated menu set in a more casual environment. The London Bar offers guests breakfast and traditional afternoon tea, as well as the opportunity to partake in a lively evening bar scene.

The London NYC is part of the LXR Luxury Resorts & Hotels Collection. The West Hollywood community can now enjoy The London West Hollywood addition, where sophistication and comfort prevail throughout. The London NYC is led by Managing Director Dominique Piquemal, who came to the property from Four Seasons in Houston where he served as Hotel Manager. ●
