

World's Best Suites

The Surrey

THE SURREY HOTEL WAS BUILT PRE-WAR IN BEAUX ARTS ARCHITECTURAL design and is situated on New York's Upper East Side with easy access to Madison Avenue's upscale boutiques and restaurants, Museum Mile, and Central Park. The property (www.thesurreyhotel.com) features 189 salons, including 30 suites, a Penthouse Suite, and a Presidential Suite. It is also home to Daniel Boulud's Café Boulud, as well as The Spa at The Surrey, a fitness center, and a 2,200-square-foot English roof garden overlooking Central Park.

Guests looking for the best the property has to offer have their choice of the 1,200-square-foot Penthouse suite or the Presidential Suite, offering an outstanding 2,800 square feet of space.

Located on the top floor of the hotel, the Penthouse Suite offers guests the feeling of staying in a sophisticated private residence with ample living and dining areas, full kitchen, and an 1,100-square-foot private wraparound terrace featuring elegant views of Central Park and the Upper East Side. The suite also boasts a gracious seating area fixed around a striking marble fireplace, an elegant dining room table with seating for six, and a modern kitchen outfitted with GE appliances. The oversized bedroom includes a private sitting area, wardrobe, and a spacious master bath with glass-enclosed shower and soaking tub. Guests will enjoy residence-inspired luxuries such as a Sanyo recessed projector with an 80 x 45-inch retractable screen and iMac computer.

The spacious and elegant Presidential Suite can be reserved with one or two bedrooms and features a private terrace, formal dining room, a fireplace, a full kitchen, and a baby grand piano. In the living room, guests will enjoy a generous seating area around the grand marble fireplace, an inviting chaise lounge, and window seats at every window. Additional luxuries include a discreetly disguised LCD TV, built-in bookcases, wet bar, and a well-appointed desk with an iMac computer. The formal dining room boasts an elegant dining table and sideboard, as well as a full bar with seating. The master bedroom has a built-in executive desk, library, and walk-in closets, and the master bath is designed for two with dual private vanities and toilet rooms, a claw-foot bathtub with its own LCD TV, glass-enclosed shower, and sauna. ●
