PERFECTLY POSITIONED IN THE HEART OF MAYFAIR, Rocco Forte's Brown's Hotel London (www.brownsotel.com) boasts one of the most prestigious addresses in the city, within walking distance of key shopping areas such as Bond Street and Regent Street, in addition to major theaters, art galleries, and all key central London landmarks. Opened in 1837, the property is comprised of 11 Georgian town houses offering 117 bedrooms, including 29 luxurious suites, and boasts contemporary interiors while maintaining a sense of quintessential English elegance. The Donovan Bar and HIX Mayfair celebrate British art and cuisine and The English Tea Room offers the award-winning afternoon tea, while an indulgent spa and state-of-the-art gymnasium provide a discreet sanctuary for guests of the property.

In December 2012, Brown's Hotel began a year of celebrations to commemorate their 175th anniversary as London's first hotel. Throughout the years, Brown's has welcomed numerous famous guests including beloved author Rudyard Kipling, who wrote The Jungle Book while staying at Brown's. To honor him, the Kipling Suite has been named after the great writer. This magnificent suite boasts a large sitting room with wooden floors and three floor-to-ceiling triple-glazed windows, providing the perfect setting for guests wishing to entertain in grand style from within the privacy of their suite. Both the king-size bedroom and sitting room have flat-screen Bang & Olufsen TVs. The suite bathroom is finished in bush hammered limestone and offers a separate rain head shower, double hand basins, and oversized bath with a built-in flat-screen television at the foot of it. Luxurious Ren and Penhaligon's toiletries and fluffy bathrobes complete the experience, which is sure to please the most discerning of travelers. ●

"We have 12 stunning suites that provide guests with their own private address in the heart of Mayfair. Each suite has been elegantly decorated, but encompasses state-of-the-art technology. The soft color scheme with light fabrics, including linens, silks, and angora throws, blends perfectly with the specially selected antiques and important pieces of artwork within the rooms. Our four Signature Suites (The Hellenic Suite, Kipling Suite, Dover Suite, and Albemarle Suite) each have names linked to the heritage of the hotel and offer an even more indulgent experience situated as they are on the first floor, with impressively large windows and views over Albemarle Street or Dover Street."
