

Editors' CHOICE

Sofitel New York

THE 30-STORY LIMESTONE-AND-GLASS SOFITEL NEW YORK (sofitel-new-york.com) offers guests the ultimate in comfort and convenience with a decidedly French accent. Perfectly situated near Rockefeller Center, Times Square, Broadway theaters, world-famous restaurants, art museums, and corporate headquarters, this elegant Midtown property offers 398 spacious rooms and 52 suites with one presidential suite, decorated in Art Deco style.

Guests with a discerning palate can indulge in modern French cuisine at Gaby Brasserie Française, the hotel's onsite restaurant with a lavish Art Deco vibe, and later, relax with a cocktail at its intimate Gaby Bar, serving up a menu of tapas and world-class cocktails.

Sofitel New York boasts nine sophisticated meeting and event spaces, and a meeting services team available to assist with every last detail. The 2,500-square-foot Grand Ballroom seats up to 200 and is flooded with natural light through stunning two-and-a-half story windows. Onsite catering features exceptional contemporary French cuisine to take any occasion to the next level.

There is no shortage of services and amenities to accommodate visitors on site, including a fitness center, complimentary Wi-Fi, and valet parking.

With guest service always top of mind, Sofitel New York provides the ideal stay for any visitor to New York seeking the best the city has to offer. ●

Counterclockwise from upper left: Sofitel New York exterior at dusk; a guest bedroom overlooking The Chrysler Building; Gaby restaurant's back area; Gaby bar; the lobby Rotunda

