TRIUMPH HOTELS (TRIUMPHHOTELS.COM) operates six hotels as diverse and distinct as the city surrounding them. From traditional luxury to graceful elegance to downtown chic, each of their six boutique hotels in New York City delivers a unique experience inspired by the personality and character of its neighborhood. The Boutique Luxury hotels include The Iroquois New York and Hotel Chandler, and the Limited Service Boutique Hotels include Hotel Belleclaire, The Evelyn, The Cosmopolitan Hotel-TriBeCa, and the Washington Jefferson Hotel. Guests will appreciate that each property offers a selection of top-of-the-line suites for a most memorable stay.

The Iroquois New York offers nine beautifully appointed and spacious Midtown Manhattan suites, each of which includes lovely views of 44th Street and an array of upscale amenities promising to appeal to the most discerning of visitors. In addition to luxury bedding, Frette linens, and large work stations in every Iroquois accommodation, the suites feature Jacuzzi tubs; Bose radios with iPod docking stations; multiple HDTVs; a living room with queen-size pull-out sofa; and a king bed with a Simmons Beautyrest mattress.

Guests can choose one of the luxurious and elegant Manhattan suites at Hotel Chandler and discover a calming oasis in the middle of the city on 31st Street off Fifth Avenue.

Chandler Suites offer a layout consisting of a separate bedroom with a modern four-poster bed, full-size working desk, and its own HDTV, and a separate living room with ample seating, including a queen-size sofa bed. Bathrooms offer upgraded Molton Brown bathroom amenities, rainfall showerheads, and Jacuzzi bathtubs. The hotel's spacious Executive Suites come with king-size beds, and the living areas offer a convertible queen-size sofa bed, two arm chairs, a large coffee table, and an oversize working desk. Two flat-screen televisions are included within the suite, and bathrooms are comprised of shower with bathtub combination.

The Evelyn, on 27th Street off Fifth Avenue, offers choosy travelers their spacious and sophisticated Executive King Suite. With references to an Art Nouveau style, the suite has a timeless New York living ambiance and boasts a custom Lefroy Brooks vanity, and furniture and fixtures designed after musical instruments including a vintage-inspired accordion sconce, trombone brass chandelier, trumpet side tables, and a victrola-inspired cabinet.

The Hotel Belleclaire on West 77th Street offers guests a luxurious experience via their Parlor Suites. Boasting Hudson River and glittering city views, the Parlor Suites feature upscale furnishings and exquisite amenities for comfort and convenience. In addition to flat-screen HDTVs, complimentary wireless Internet access, C.O. Bigelow amenities, granite desks, and Frette linens, these Upper West Side suites also offer a living room with pullout sofa sleeper, a separate king-bedded room, and a blu-ray DVD player with complimentary movies.

Triumph Hotel's collection of properties and wide range of suites are ideally suited to cater to any guest's desires. ●
