

China's Future

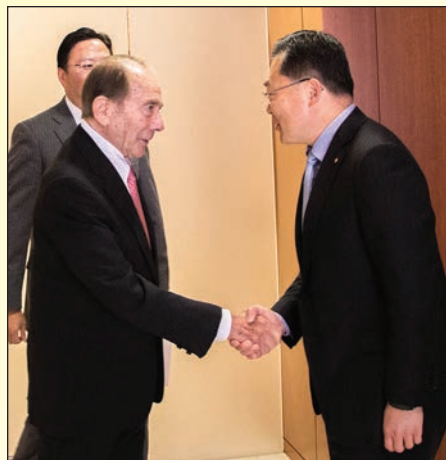

Event host Hank Greenberg of Starr Companies

LEADERS Magazine and China General Chamber of Commerce – U.S.A. (CGCC) hosted a lunch with Maurice (Hank) Greenberg and Starr Companies that brought together a group of senior executives from China's leading companies.

These leaders discussed China's future and U.S.-China relations, as well as opportunities for leading Chinese and American companies to more effectively partner and work together.

Mr. Greenberg's vast knowledge and experience in building a business in China and developing deep and lasting relationships in the country provided a valuable platform for these dynamic leaders to have an open and honest discussion about China's future.
