

The Lanesborough

A ST. REGIS HOTEL LOCATED IN ELEGANT KNIGHTSBRIDGE, THE LANESBOROUGH (www.lanesborough.com) occupies an 1827 landmark building that was restored to its original grandeur. The five-star ultra-deluxe property is situated on London's Hyde Park Corner and offers guests 50 rooms and 43 suites to choose from, decorated in Regency style and evoking the ambience of a 19th-century town house. The property is just minutes from the exclusive shopping of Harrods and Sloane Street. Guests will enjoy dining at Apsleys, a Michelin-starred Heinz Beck Restaurant, as well as award-winning afternoon tea or drinks at the Library Bar. The property also houses the most luxurious smoking venue in London, a Spa Studio, a Fitness Studio, a business center, concierge services, and six venues for meetings and social events. Personal 24-hour butler service is available to all guests.

Guests eager to indulge in the property's newest exquisite offering may request The Lanesborough Suite. Set to open in May 2011, the space has been designed by world-renowned designer Alberto Pinto and reflects a perfect blend of 19th century elegance and contemporary sophistication.

In excess of 4,000 square feet, the suite is one of the largest and most opulent accommodations in London and boasts four bedrooms, five and a half bathrooms, two living rooms, a kitchen, and a dining room ideal for those looking to entertain. Guests will also appreciate floor-to-ceiling windows that offer elegant views of Wellington Arch and Green Park. The suite may also be broken down into one, two, three, or four bedrooms.

In addition to 24-hour butler service and other luxurious amenities, the full rate for The Lanesborough Suite includes a complimentary chauffeur-driven Rolls-Royce Phantom. ●

Renderings of The Lanesborough Suite, set to open May 2011