

World's Best Suites

The London NYC

THE LONDON NYC (WWW.THELONDONNYC.COM) IS ideally situated just steps from Fifth Avenue, Broadway theaters, and Carnegie Hall, a spot that affords rare and stunning views of the iconic city skyline. Boasting some of the largest accommodations in Manhattan, the property is comprised of a variety of glamorous suites that range in proportion and appointment, from the 500-square-foot London Suites to the spectacular duplex London Penthouse. Michelin-starred chef Gordon Ramsay oversees the culinary team, offering an extravagant and complete culinary experience from restaurant to room.

The most sophisticated travelers will find an incomparable choice in the property's one-of-a-kind London Atrium Suite. Situated under an expansive glass atrium ceiling surrounded by the Manhattan skyline, the suite boasts panoramic views of Central Park and the Hudson River, and as many stars as the eyes can see. More than 1,400 square feet of luxurious living space is a display of masterful creativity by renowned designer David Collins and includes a living room with stylish seating and a dining area for formal or casual in-room dining. Indulge in guest amenities and services that include a 60-inch retractable plasma TV, a Sub-Zero refrigerator and stocked wet bar for entertaining, complimentary in-room high-speed Internet access including wireless, and iHome docking stations for iPods. The bedroom boasts a king bed with luxurious Filli D'Oro Italian bedding and hand-woven throws. The complete Waterworks bath environment features an indulgent oversized shower with double rain showerheads and custom mosaic tiles. Guests seeking even more space are offered the option of having two additional king-bedded rooms attached to create an expansive three-bedroom suite. ●

The Atrium Suite living area (top); bedroom (below); and dining area (right)

