"The Peninsula New York's collection of suites offer a broad range of luxurious choices, each featuring sumptuous decor and spacious accommodations. From our Executive Suite category, which offers a nice sized living room for business meetings and small gatherings, to our recently renovated premier suite, The Peninsula Suite at 3,300 square feet, which features two bedrooms, a living room, a study, and a formal dining room, our suite product is truly one of the best in the city."

-Jonathan H. Crook, General Manager

This past year, The Peninsula New York debuted its newly refurbished 3,300-square-foot Peninsula Suite. Occupying the majority of the 19th floor, the suite features stunning cityscape views of Fifth Avenue and comprises six rooms, including a spacious master bedroom and bath, breathtaking dining room with adjoining kitchen, elegant living room, study, and an additional bedroom.

Designed by New York-based Bill Rooney, the Peninsula Suite possesses the feeling of a grand New York residence with an ensemble of furnishings and finishes curated to create a cohesive, fresh, and confident style. Rich woods, polished marble floors, hand-tufted carpets, and distinctive sophisticated plaster details define a space that showcases the suite's fine furnishings, art, a grand piano, and the upgraded Peninsula in-room technology.

Guests of the Peninsula Suite will revel in a variety of complimentary "suite perks" during their stay including round-trip airport transfers in The Peninsula's signature BMW 7-Series; unlimited wine/alcohol bar customized to the guest's preference; a Sleep Menu with three choices of luxury linens, pillows, and duvets; and a dedicated iPad for use throughout the stay and preloaded with a selection of domestic and international newspapers according to the guest's preference

The Peninsula Suite is priced at $24,000 per night (plus taxes) and may also be booked as a three-bedroom option with the adjoining Deluxe Suite. ●
