

Regent Hotels & Resorts

REGENT (REGENTHOTELS.COM) WAS FOUNDED IN THE '70S AND BECAME the first truly Asian-based global hospitality group. In the '80s and '90s, Regent properties, such as the Regent Hong Kong and Regent Beverly Wilshire, were among some of the world's most acclaimed hotels. In 1992, eight Regent hotels were recognized by Condé Nast Traveler as among the Top 25 Hotels in the World, with more than half of the best 14 hotels on earth carrying the Regent name. The brand was later sold to Four Seasons and then Carlson before finally being acquired by FIH Regent Group. The existing Regents are located in Beijing, Berlin, Porto Montenegro, Taipei, and Singapore. Regent Chongqing is set to open in the fourth quarter of 2016, Regent Place Harbin in 2017, and Regent Jakarta, Indonesia in 2018 respectively. In 2011, all hotels in the Regent-managed portfolio were listed as the best luxury hotels in the world by the Condé Nast Traveler's Readers' Choice Awards, becoming the first and only international luxury hotel group to ever achieve this recognition. In 2013, the group was fifth in the worldwide ranking of the World Luxury Index measuring the most searched and sought-after luxury hotels.

The Regent Berlin boasts its own Presidential Suite, which offers fantastic views of the must-see Gendarmenmarkt Square and a private balcony, and is also available as a two- or three-bedroom suite with connecting doors. The spacious living room with Biedermeier-style furniture is equipped with a writing desk, sitting area with open fireplace, and large dining table. There is also a kitchenette with separate service entrance. The marble bathroom has two vanities and basins, a deep-soaking bathtub, and walk-in shower, as well as a separate toilet.

Offering the ultimate in luxury living, the Regent Residence at Regent Porto Montenegro offers a lavish indoor unit and expansive terrace space. This penultimate residence features three bedrooms, all with king-sized beds, a full kitchen, spacious dining and living rooms, a study, and four bathrooms. Guests will enjoy unrivalled views of majestic sunsets over the Boka Bay that transform a sea of turquoise into a bed of dancing gold. The surrounding mountains that embrace Montenegro can be enjoyed from one of seven terraces or a private outdoor Jacuzzi. ●

Under total renovation, the new Garden Suite at the Regent Taipei is an ideal place for brand launching, special celebrations, and elite business stays. A spacious living room, a well-equipped dining area, and a separate bedroom provide a cozy, accommodating environment, while the private alfresco lounge built with a vine-surrounded archway and plaited rattan furniture allows guests to be in touch with nature at the heart of Taipei.

Featuring panoramic views of the world-famous Wangfujing walking and shopping street via full-length picture windows, the prestigious Regent Beijing Presidential Suite is handcrafted in classic yet contemporary eastern style and features a kitchenette, large living room, dining area, and study. A full-size, four-poster bed in naturally scented rosewood with canopy invites personal pampering, while a 42-inch flat-screen TV and top-of-the-range Bose DVD and sound system offer the very best in-room entertainment.

Clockwise from top right: living area of the Regent Beijing Presidential Suite; view from the Regent Berlin Gendarmenmarkt Suite; the living area of the Regent Residence at the Regent Porto Montenegro; living area of the Regent Taipei Garden Suite