New York

THE ICONIC ROYALTON (MORGANSHOTELGROUP.COM) has been brilliantly reinvented by Roman and Williams, reinstating its place as the stylish living room of Manhattan, and a crossroads for international travelers and the New York elite. Simultaneously sophisticated and complex, this New York luxury boutique hotel features a floorto-ceiling, hand-forged cast bronze fireplace, a 20-foot screen that was once part of the façade of a building in France, and hand-upholstered leather walls reminiscent of African tribal art. Royalton's popular Forty Four bar and restaurant remains the gathering place and power lunch spot for New York City's media, publishing, and fashion elite. Located in the heart of Midtown, the Royalton is just steps from great shopping, Broadway, the Theater District,

The original Philippe Stark design statements welcome guests into Royalton's most intimate penthouse featuring 14-foot ceilings, separate living and sleeping quarters with a king-size bed, and a deluxe bathroom enriched with sleek, slate tiling, rejuvenating rain showerhead, and MALIN + GOETZ bath products. The sun-filled living room offers a floor-to-ceiling windowed workspace, as well as a slate mantel and wood-burning fireplace. A lavish, private terrace with sweeping views of Midtown Manhattan and 44th Street invites guests to begin and end each day with a breath

Philippe Stark's bold vision design welcomes guests into an iconic and more intimate Penthouse North featuring a stunning windowed so-larium with retractable Roman shades exposing sweeping views of Times Square and Midtown Manhattan. Convertible to a two-bedroom suite, the bright, comfortable, and inspiring 900-square-foot space offers soaring 14-foot ceilings, and separate living and sleeping quarters high above Midtown Manhattan. The dining table for six, fully outfitted kitchenette, sleeping quarters with a king-size bed, and sleek, slate bathroom allow guests to experience exclusive apartment-style living with all the amenities of an iconic boutique hotel. Fresh orchids add a warm and elegant touch to the light, modern space, and a private terrace off the master bedroom invites guests to enjoy views of the city.

Penthouse South is Royalton's largest and most prestigious penthouse. The southern-facing penthouse offers bold and original design statements, and the sumptuous colors and eye-catching details echo the grand ambiance of the hotel lobby in a timeless and storied setting. Guests are greeted by a dramatic, candlelit entrance opening into a sophisticated living room featuring fresh orchids and two large solariums with retractable Roman shades. •
