

World's Best Suites

Lotte New York Palace

Clockwise from top left: Tower Corner Suite living area; Champagne Suite living area; Jewel Suite by Martin Katz living area; Tower Executive Suite bedroom entrance

LOTTE NEW YORK PALACE (LOTTENYPALACE.COM) FEATURES 909 spacious rooms and suites including 176 exclusive Towers accommodations, which provide unwavering attention to detail, and unparalleled views, all with a residential style floor plan. The hotel's famed Villard Mansion, built in 1882, is recognized as a New York City landmark and graciously blends with the contemporary 55-story tower, designed in 1980.

The modern, 655-square-foot Towers Executive Suites look out onto the Manhattan skyline and St. Patrick's Cathedral from the 41st floor and higher, blending classic luxury with state-of-the-art advantages. Adjacent to the expansive windows, an oversize desk transforms cleverly to an elegant tabletop setting. Mirrored pocket doors separate the New York City luxury suite's opulent bedroom from a well-appointed living space featuring custom furnishings and a state-of-the-art, Creston touch-screen with controlled climate and privacy settings. Guests of the highest caliber will be delighted by the elegant suite offerings.

The Towers Corner Suites are 1,210-square-foot and offer an exceptional residential-style floor plan unlike any other with all the advantages of modern-day living, ideal for extended stays, as well as short visits. Situated between floors 41 and 52, these suites feature expansive views in two directions facing east or west towards St. Patrick's Cathedral. Inspired by the rich heritage of the landmark Villard Mansion, the corner suites feature a combination of media commissioned art, bringing a sense of avant-garde culture to an elegant sand and ivory color palette. In addition, a guest powder room and a butler's pantry make entertaining very simple and relaxing. An elegantly appointed master bedroom includes a king-size bed with luxury imported linens, and a bedside Creston touch-screen technology controls temperature, window treatments, and a 42-inch plasma-screen television.

The extravagant 5,000-square-foot, three-bedroom Champagne Suite sprawls over three floors of breathtaking vistas and spectacular decor. Carefully curated art and elements of contemporary opulence lie against a backdrop of warm blacks and bronze tones. Guests of the suite are welcomed by a Nouveau Nero polished marble foyer, balanced by the rustic feel of Italian stone textured walls. Two-story views envelop a gracious grand parlor, and a shimmering crystal pendant chandelier cascades from the vaulted ceiling. Rustic elements recur in the 10-seat formal dining room and a fully stocked wine cave adds an element of authenticity to the suite. A winding marble staircase leads to a master bedroom suite with a Chardonnay color story and a double queen guest room swathed in shades of rich Pinot Noir and glistening rosé, each with its own bath. The library doubles as a tasting room, and the third floor, reached by private in-suite elevator, features a second sitting area with a wood-burning fireplace, pantry, and sweeping rooftop terrace with a custom-designed waterfall spa.

The Jewel Suite by Martin Katz was created in collaboration with acclaimed jewelry designer Martin Katz. The multifaceted 5,000-square-foot three-bedroom suite encompasses radiant, Art Deco-inspired elements. The entry and grand staircase celebrate light and reflection with a two-story "cascading crystal" chandelier in sculptural harmony with floating jewelry displays showcasing Katz creations. Sensual jewel-toned furnishings, dramatic wall art, and a magnificent grand piano make this an ideal space for entertaining or relaxing in intimacy. The mirrored-wall dining room features a hand-blown chandelier and a Katz-created glass mosaic. On the second floor, the grand master and guest bedrooms are adorned in rich hues, and Calcutta Tucci marble and polished black absolute granite make the master bath a personal sanctuary. A sumptuous boudoir includes a Lucite tableau showcasing spectacular jewels. An outdoor terrace features an elevated stone spa and green space, where guests may enjoy a private dinner or breakfast. ●

