

Acqualina Resort & Residences on the Beach

A seaside haven set on nearly five acres between Miami and Fort Lauderdale, Acqualina Resort & Residences on the Beach (acqualinaresort.com) is South Florida's true luxury escape. Reminiscent of a Mediterranean villa with its leisure-focused lifestyle and grand design, Acqualina is Florida's only hotel of its kind to be built completely open to the ocean, free of barriers between the 51-story tower and its 400 feet of glistening Atlantic shoreline.

Acqualina Front Lawn (top); Costa Grill (above)

At Acqualina, a Sunny Isles Beach Resort, guests find a collection of amenities that make the resort a true destination, including several options for on-site food and beverage service, in addition to in-room dining. The resort features Il Mulino New York, New York City's acclaimed

Relaxation Room at Acqualina Spa

Ke-uH restaurant

Italian restaurant; Ke-uH, which brings Japanese fusion cuisine to Acqualina; and Costa Grill, the ultimate outdoor dining locale.

Guests of Acqualina may also indulge in the award-winning Acqualina Spa. The skilled team of therapists creates tailored treatments to completely customize each guest's experience. Guests can unwind in the his-and-hers relaxation lounges featuring Himalayan salt walls and enjoy the crystal steam rooms, arctic ice fountains, experience showers, and Finnish dry heat saunas. Spa guests may also enjoy the oceanfront co-ed pool terrace, heated jet pool, and Roman waterfall spa.

The Recreation Pool

Acqualina's three additional swimming pools ensure guests find their personal outdoor sanctuary: the Beach Club Pool, outfitted with crimson-toned lounge chairs and private cabanas, is ideal for guests of all ages; the adult-only Tranquility Pool offers a perfect setting for uninterrupted sunbathing and relaxation; and the Recreation Pool, which is the epicenter for the resort's aqua fitness classes and games.

Acqualina's 54 guest rooms and 44 suites offer a heightened level of modern elegance beginning at nearly 750-square-feet and going up to three-bedroom suites which span more than 2,300-square-feet of indoor/outdoor space. Guests enjoy expansive bathrooms outfitted with imported marble flooring, double sinks, a bathtub and separate glass-enclosed shower, and ESPA-branded bath products, along with sitting areas, large HD televisions, fully stocked bars with gourmet food snacks and private terraces. An iPad is available in all guest-rooms and suites and guests are also encouraged to download the Acqualina App to their own devices. Select guest rooms and suites feature a full gourmet kitchen with a sub-zero built-in refrigerator/freezer, designer granite countertops, Italian limited-edition cabinets, microwave, dishwasher, stainless-steel sink and garbage disposal.

Living area of a Grand Deluxe Three-Bedroom Oceanfront Suite

Acqualina Resort & Residences is located at the center of Miami's glamour, beauty and excitement. Its prime location provides immediate access to the city's most desirable destinations, including the natural beauty of Sunny Isles' sun-drenched Atlantic shores, endless nightlife and dining options in South Beach, and glamorous shopping at luxury brands such as Louis Vuitton and Gucci at the nearby Bal Harbour Shops and Aventura Mall.

A family-owned and operated property, Acqualina is a recipient of the coveted Forbes Travel Guide Awards for both the hotel and spa and the AAA Five Diamond Award. ●