

Four Seasons Hotel New York Presidential Suite

The Presidential Suite at Four Seasons Hotel New York offers an elevated residential experience high above Manhattan. Located on an upper floor of the I.M. Pei-designed landmark, the suite features expansive living and dining spaces, abundant natural light, and sweeping views of Central Park and the city skyline.

Designed for both comfort and sophistication, the suite features a spacious living room and a refined dining area ideal for private entertaining, complemented by a serene primary bedroom. Bespoke furnishings and meticulous finishes create an atmosphere of timeless elegance throughout.

The marble bathroom serves as a private retreat, complete with a deep soaking tub, walk-in steam shower, and dual vanities. Guests enjoy Four Seasons' legendary personalized service, delivered by a long-tenured team renowned for discretion, warmth, and attention to detail.

Situated at 57th Street and Madison Avenue, the Presidential Suite places guests moments from Central Park, Fifth Avenue shopping, and world-class cultural institutions, making it the ultimate choice for global leaders and discerning travellers seeking privacy and prestige in the heart of Manhattan. ●

Four Seasons Hotel New York Presidential Suite living area (right), bedroom (above), and bathroom (below)

